‘Miss Iowa’ hopefuls will be our guests

Years ago the Bettendorf Rotary would host each year’s Miss Iowa contestants at a luncheon, S.K. Nanda told members during the June 2 meeting. That tradition will be revived for our next meeting, when we return to The Fountains June 9 and meet the 2010 Miss Iowa contestants and enjoy a review of the talents they will perform during the pageant – June 10-12 at the Adler Theater, Davenport.

Becky Hinton, once again our host at The Fountains, said that for those luncheons in years past Rotary members would bring their daughters to meet the contestants. Becky extended that invitation for our June 9 meeting – to any guest; if you plan to bring a guest to that meeting, please email President Dave:

‘Run with Carl’

As this newsletter was being written, the countdown clock at the Run With Carl Website was approaching 94 days, 20 hours until the 16th annual running of the event for which Bettendorf Rotary has been the title sponsor since 2005.

To underscore the reason for Run With Carl, Dick and Juanita Schillig, run directors (and founders), presented the 2010 Carl D. Schillig Memorial Scholarship recipients at the June 2 meeting.

They are Ryan Flynn, Bettendorf High School class of 2010, and Emily Misak,

Pleasant Valley High School class of 2010. Each received a $4,000 scholarship – $1,000 per year. Ryan will study accounting and finance at Drake University, and Emily will go to Iowa

State University to pursue a career in school administration. Their parents are Paul and Erin Flynn, and Alex and Janene Misak.

The Schilligs introduced previous scholarship winners – Sherri DeVrieze, Kevin Ketelsen and Greg Bauer.
