Learn more about how Hand-in-Hand serves kids

Hand-in-Hand is a Quad-Cities non-profit organization whose mission is to create “fun recreational and learning experiences for children and young adults, including those with disabilities, according to the organization’s Web site. Mark Smith, its director, is the scheduled speaker at our Dec. 17 meeting.

Hand-in-Hand programs “provide a growing number of services for both special- and typical-needs children 6 weeks to 21 years of age. Hand-in-Hand is also expanding some activities to serve adults with disabilities.”

It plans its activities with the age and ability level of each individual in mind. “Children with a wide variety of mental, physical and medical needs are welcomed participants in our inclusive programs,” it says.

PV songsters serenade us...

In introducing members the Pleasant Valley High School Chamber Choir – who were our special guests at the Dec. 10 meeting – Jim Spelhaug took obvious pride in noting that 17 of the group’s members had been selected for the All-State Choir.

He introduced choir director Meg Byrne who led the 23 members present in singing an a capella medley of Christmas season favorites. They were “Carol of the Bells,” an English arrangement of the Austrian carol “Still, Still, Still,” a “mixed-meter” arrangement of “Deck the Halls” and a rousing “Joy to the World” – in which BRC members were invited to join in singing verse 1.

After an intermission – during which the members of the ensemble introduced themselves – they sang “We Wish You a Merry Christmas.”

Announcements...

➔ January meetings: President Sharon asked for ideas on meeting sites, since the new Hilton Garden Inn probably won’t be finished.

➔ Messiah performances: Tom Howard – who has sung in the chorus for many years – invited all to the 134th anniversary of Handel’s Oratorio at Augustana Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon; to order tickets:

➔ Holiday baskets: Jonna Schuler reported that volunteers have signed up to deliver baskets to all 15 families, including purchasing gifts for the children in those families. Besides thanking the volunteers, she announced that Dr. Tom Olson is donating a gift-wrapped toothbrush and toothpaste for each member of the recipient families.

➔ LobsterFest planning: Before the weekly meeting, President Sharon convened the first planning meeting for the June 13, 2015, event. While attendance was light – only Sharon, Jennifer Garlach, Penny McGimpsey and Carl Loweth earned make-ups for being there – they reviewed the event, summarized the work of each committee and discussed a number of prospective sponsors. All BRC members are asked to add their ideas to that discussion. Many committee chairs and members from last year's successful event have already committed to repeat their roles.

➔ And speaking of BRC's biggest fundraiser of the year: The grant-awarding ceremony to disperse funds earned at the 2014 LobsterFest is scheduled for Wednesday, Jan. 28, at Tanglewood Pavilion. We will give away $25,000 in grants to local nonprofit organizations. Details of those organizations and the specific projects for the grants they receive will be announced closer to the event. Jeff Hassel heads the Charities Board, which makes the grants.

➔ Pack 54 Pinewood Derby: Frank Mitvalsky announced that our Cub Scout pack's annual small-wooden-car race event is scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 24, 2015. He asked for three volunteer judges – and quickly got them. He said Jim Spelhaug is a former Derby champ and, in his honor, said he'd supply the wood, nails and wheels for any BRC member to enter in the Open Division.

➔ Update your calendar:

Holiday Social: The evening of Thursday, Jan. 22, at the Davenport Country Club – more details to come.

Red Badge Meeting: For all new members – whose badge still has a small red patch on it – it's scheduled for 6-7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 10, at Granite City.

December meetings: All at Tanglewood Pavilion: next Wednesday, Dec. 17, as usual... NOT Christmas Eve, Dec. 24... but we will meet for a social time on New Year's Eve, Dec. 31.
